BeneFit for Life

Your Federal Judiciary Benefits Program provides a wide range of benefits and choices so you can create a package to “BeneFit” your individual needs.

On day one and throughout your career, being informed about your Judiciary benefits is highly important, and there are useful resources available to help you learn more, compare choices, and make decisions that truly fit your personal situation.

This booklet is designed to give you an overview of all your Federal Judiciary benefits along with a “BeneFit Checklist” and Quick Reference to help you keep track of important deadlines so you can take full advantage of your benefits right from the start... and every step along the way.

For Newly Hired Judiciary Employees—Keep in mind that the enrollment clock starts ticking on your first day of employment, and there are certain benefits that require you take action sooner rather than later.

For All Judiciary Employees—Understanding the ins and outs of your benefits and keeping track of how they are performing throughout the year is key to making the most of your benefit program.

Note: Eligibility for certain benefits depends on your appointment type. Refer to the charts on pages 4-5 or check with the Benefits Coordinator at your location for details.

Defining Benefit Eligibility

Eligibility for certain benefits depends on your appointment type, with a specific benefit package for law clerks and staff attorneys. Refer to the charts on these two pages for a general overview.

Type of Appointment	Leave	Social Security & Medicare	Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHB) ²	Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP)	Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Program (FEGLI)	Supplemental Benefits ⁴	Thrift Savings Plan (TSP)	Retirement
Permanent No established time limit	✓	✓	See FEHB Eligibility Matrix	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Temporary—More than 1 year NTE date more than 1 year	✓	✓		✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Temporary—1 year or less NTE date 90 days to 1 year	✓ ¹	✓		X ³	X ³	X ³	X ³	X ³
Temporary—1 year or less NTE date less than 90 days	✓ ¹	✓		X ³	X ³	X ³	X ³	X ³

When Actually Employed - Another type of appointment in the Judiciary is When Actually Employed (WAE), and is used when an employee has no pre-determined work schedule and works intermittently. WAE employees can serve on permanent or temporary appointments; however, regardless of the type of appointment they are on, WAE employees are generally excluded from insurance, retirement, TSP, and supplemental benefits. The only exception to this rule is when an employee whose WAE appointment follows, with no break in service, a position in which the employee held such benefits and to which the employee is expected to return. Intermittent employees are exempt from accruing leave. Additional information regarding WAE appointments can be found in the Human Resources Manual.

✓ = Eligible for Benefit

X = Not Eligible for Benefit

¹ If the duration of the appointment is less than 90 days, the employee will earn annual leave retroactively to the start of the appointment for each pay period in which a complete biweekly tour of duty is served. If the duration of the temporary appointment is 90 days to 1 year or less, the employee will earn sick and annual leave starting the first pay period in which a complete biweekly tour of duty is served.

² Please refer to the HR FEHB Eligibility Chart in order to determine FEHB eligibility. Coverage is dependent on employee work schedule, length of appointment, and hours worked. FEHB coverage is available to permanent, temporary, and intermittent employees who are expected to work at least 130 hours per month for at least 90 days. These eligible employees who elect an FEHB plan receive the same government premium contribution as “full-time” permanent employees.

³ FEDVIP, FEGLI, Retirement, Supplemental Benefits, and TSP are available only if transferring without a break in service from a previously covered position.

⁴ Supplemental benefits include health and dependent care reimbursement accounts, commuter benefits, Transportation Subsidy Program, and long-term care. If the employee is eligible for these benefits, each benefit is optional. Enrollment in any one of them is not required in order to elect any other supplemental benefit.

Note: This chart does not apply to law clerks or staff attorneys. See the Law Clerks Benefits Chart or the Staff Attorneys Benefits Chart on the JNet, Human Resources Management, under Tools for HR Professionals. You can also find these charts on the new hire CD.

✓ = Eligible for Benefit | X = Not Eligible for Benefit

² Court must certify employee is expected to work 130 hours or more per month in order to be eligible for FEHB and the government premium contribution. If actual hours are reduced after certification, no proration rules will apply. Court will provide certification of hours upon completion of new hire paperwork.

³ Part Time, Temporary employees who have accumulated more than a year in service are eligible to enroll in to the FEHB program, but must pay the full premium.

Staying Healthy

It's true that you can't put a price tag on good health, and the Federal Judiciary provides benefits to help you and your family stay healthy and keep fit.

Some medical plans under the FEHB offer “buy ups” for dental and/or vision coverage—that are not part of FEDVIP—for their members, and depending on the plan, even non-members. There are also carriers outside of both FEHB and FEDVIP that sometimes offer coverage options to federal employees. Payment for coverage outside of FEHB and FEDVIP is usually made directly to these carriers and in one lump sum payment. All questions for this type of coverage are also directed to the carriers.

Securing a Sound Retirement

Whether your retirement is right around the corner or years down the road, retirement benefits and a savings plan are available to help you build a solid financial future.

If you are covered under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or the CSRS Offset, please refer to the information on the J-Net Benefits pages and the OPM website.

If eligible, a FERS Annuity Supplement is paid to you (in addition to your Basic Benefit) until you reach age 62 and are eligible for Social Security.

Federal Employees Retirement System

Program Name	Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS)
What It Is	A retirement plan with three components—FERS Basic Benefit, Social Security, and Thrift Savings Plan (TSP)
Coverage	Federal civilian employees first hired after 12/31/1983 are automatically covered under FERS (see eligibility charts on pages 4 and 5)

How to Make Elections	Make, change, or stop elections by completing Form TSP-1 and submit it to your local HR representative. (Watch for electronic elections via Employee Self Service in the future.)

“Your Retirement Lifeline” is an easy-to-use resource to help you plan for your retirement. Designed specifically for Federal Judiciary employees, it provides the information you need to get informed and organized around financial planning for retirement. The “Retirement Lifeline” is available on the J-Net Retirement Benefits page.

Protecting Against the Unexpected

For those times when life delivers the unexpected—an illness, accident, injury, etc.—there are several Judiciary benefit programs available to provide peace of mind and financial protection for you and your family.

Life Insurance

You are automatically covered by basic life insurance on your first day of employment. You can waive this coverage at any time. After your initial enrollment period, you may only increase coverage during a qualifying life event; upon approval after having a medical examination; or in rare instances, during a life insurance open season.

Program Name	Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance (FEGLI)
What It Provides	Term life insurance at group rates
Who You Can Cover	Yourself, your spouse, and your eligible dependent children
Basic Life Insurance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coverage is provided automatically • Amount is your salary rounded to the next even thousand, plus two thousand • Extra benefit for employees under age 45 at no additional cost

Government holidays also provide Judiciary employees with time off.

The 10 holidays each year are:

- New Year’s Day
- Memorial Day
- Veterans Day
- Martin Luther King, Jr.’s Birthday
- Independence Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Washington’s Birthday
- Labor Day
- Christmas Day
- Columbus Day

Changing Your Choices

Your benefit needs can change based on any number of factors. That's why each year you have the opportunity to make changes to help ensure your benefit program fits the needs of you and your family.

Qualifying Life Events

Qualifying life events are not the same for all benefit programs, so be sure to check with your local Human Resources Office for details.

Once enrolled in certain benefits, you are able to make changes only during Open Season, or if you experience a qualifying life event.

This applies to the following benefits:

- Health Insurance (FEHB)
- Dental and Vision Insurance (FEDVIP)
- Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA)
- Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA)
- Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance (FEGLI)
- Premium Payment Plan (PPP)

Changes to enrollment for a qualifying life event (QLE) can generally be made 31 days before the event and up to 60 days after. QLEs generally relate to:

- Change in family status—such as marriage; birth or adoption of a child; a child losing dependent status; separation or divorce
- Change in employment status—such as you or a family member losing benefit coverage

*Actual annual Open Season dates are announced by the Office of Personnel Management in early fall. The annual Open Season applies to FEHB, FEDVIP, HCRA, and DCRA. Open Season for FEGLI is announced by the Office of Personnel Management in rare circumstances.

Quick Reference

Use the chart below to track the course of your Federal Judiciary benefits throughout the year... and throughout your career. Remember that benefit programs are flexible and can be adjusted to fit your needs. By keeping your benefits top-of-mind during the year, you will be better prepared to make informed decisions when the time comes to make changes.

Annual

- Health Insurance (FEHB)
 - Dental and Vision Insurance (FEDVIP)
 - Health Care Reimbursement Account
 - Dependent Care Reimbursement Account
- Check your earnings statement at the beginning of the year to make sure the deductions from your pay match the benefit elections you signed up for during Open Season.
- Evaluate your benefits throughout the year, and keep track of any issues that may come up related to cost or service. This will help you make informed decisions about your benefits when Open Season rolls around.
- Keep track of your out-of-pocket expenses. Having a clear picture of your recurring costs will allow you to make needed adjustments to your medical, dental, and/or vision coverage, as well as your health care and/or dependent care reimbursement accounts.
- Use plan comparison tools to help with your enrollment decisions.
- Be sure to make changes to your benefits from 31 days before a qualifying life event up to 60 days after.

Note: Eligibility for certain benefits depends on your appointment type. Refer to the charts on pages 4-5 or check with the Benefits Coordinator at your location for details.

- Thrift Savings Plan (TSP)
 - Life Insurance (FEGLI)
 - Long-Term Care Insurance
- If you are a FERS employee, contribute at least 5% to take full advantage of the matching contributions from the Federal Judiciary. If you are a CSRS employee, contribute to the TSP to enhance your retirement income.
- Use the TSP calculators on the website to plan and manage your account.
- Consider revisiting your life insurance needs if you are getting married, having a child, buying a home, funding college for your children, supporting aging parents, or getting close to retirement.
- Check your life insurance, retirement, Thrift Savings Plan, and Unpaid Compensation beneficiaries periodically and make updates as needed.
- Keep in mind that long-term care can span years and can be expensive depending on the type of care needed and the location where that care is received. That's why it's a good financial idea to consider long-term care insurance as a way to help pay for those expenses.

BeneFit Checklist for Newly Hired Employees

The enrollment deadlines for certain benefit programs are linked to your date of employment. Filling in the dates on this checklist will highlight your personal deadlines. Then it's up to you to review the benefits listed and make enrollment decisions that fit your needs... before time runs out.

Your total compensation package at the Federal Judiciary includes not only the numbers you see on your paycheck but also the "hidden value" provided by your employee benefits. These benefits can help in a variety of ways with your finances, your family and yourself, so be sure to take advantage of all they have to offer.
