

The United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

Transit Subsidy Program

The Transit Subsidy Program is a supplemental benefit offered by the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Subject to funding, all employees who use approved public transportation are eligible to receive a monthly benefit. The court has approved the current maximum allowable benefit of up to $265 per month. The amount of the benefit is determined by each participant's actual monthly transportation costs. SmartBenefits may be used on Metrorail/Metrobus or exchanged for fares for approved alternate transit providers. Benefits may not be given, sold, or otherwise transferred to another person.

Eligible employees will need a registered SmartTrip card in order to participate in the SmartBenefits program. A SmartTrip card is a permanent, rechargeable farecard that contains a computer chip to track the value of the card. SmartTrip cards can hold up to $300 in value and, once registered, the value of the card will be protected if the card is lost or damaged. SmartTrip cards may be purchased online at www.WMATA.com, at Metro sales offices (closest is Metro Center), and at select retail locations.

Enrollment forms, as well as a list of participating transit systems, may be obtained from the court's Transit Subsidy Coordinator (see below). As required by the SmartBenefits program, fully completed and signed enrollment forms must be received by the Coordinator no later than the 14th day of the month in order to be eligible to begin receiving the subsidy the following month. Approved funds are automatically loaded into the transit benefits purse of the participant's SmartTrip account on the first day of each month following enrollment.

Please note that employees with an assigned parking space in the court's garage are not eligible to participate.

OR ALLOCATE YOUR FUNDS.

Employees who wish to use the SmartBenefits® passenger allocation system must set up an account online to designate their benefit value to their commuter service. Once it is set up, the benefit is automatically allocated each month. If you need to make changes, just do so before your service provider's cut-off date (usually the 16th or 21st of the month). Visit wmata.com/smartbenefits to set up your passenger allocation account.

TRANSIT. PARKING. SAVINGS. IT'S JUST SMART.

SmartBenefits® gives you up to $3,060 a year ($255 a month) for transit costs, as well as up to $255 in parking benefits. Your employer can offer SmartBenefits® as:

A direct employee benefit

It costs you nothing, and private sector employers can often write off the cost as a business expense.

A pre-tax salary deduction

Through a payroll deduction, you can pay for SmartBenefits® with pre-tax income. Take the maximum transit benefit and you could save about $649 per year in income taxes.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

SmartBenefits® are autoloaded to a SmarTrip® card—Metro's rechargeable plastic card, embedded with a special computer chip. Your employer assigns the amount of your monthly SmartBenefits® to your SmarTrip® card account using our website. Your benefits remain in your account until you use the Metro system and touch the SmarTrip® card to the circular target on station faregates, bus fareboxes or parking entry/exit gates. Then, like a debit card, your SmarTrip® card accesses your account and deducts the fare or parking fee.

Value on your card is stored in up to three different "purses"—a transit purse, a parking purse and a personal stored value purse. SmartBenefits® are kept in the transit

WHERE CAN YOU USE IT?

SmartBenefits® can be autoloaded for use on:

- Metrorail and Metrobus
- DC Circulator
- ART (Arlington Transit)
- CUE (Fairfax City)
- Fairfax Connector
- Loudoun County Commuter Bus Service
- PRTC (Potomac and Rappahannock Transportation Commission)
- OmniRide
- Ride On (Montgomery County)
- DASH (Alexandria)
- TheBus (Prince George's County)

SMARTRIP®: CONVENIENT AND SAFE.

- A SmarTrip® card can hold up to $300 in stored value, in addition to transit and parking benefits, so you don't have to carry cash.
- It gives you one card to pay for all your public transportation needs.
- If lost, a registered SmarTrip® card—and all the value that was on it when reported lost—can be replaced. Important: You must notify your employer and give them your new SmarTrip® card serial number to reassign your benefits.

A combination of both

Your employer can provide part of the benefit and give you the option to pay the balance from pre-tax income. Your employer buys the benefit using the combined amount, and you still save on taxes.

purse, where unused funds are either rolled over or credited back to your employer at the end of the month. Employer-provided parking benefits are kept in the parking purse and any money you had on the card prior to enrolling in SmartBenefits®, or that you choose to add via cash or online transfer, remains in your personal stored value purse. Stored value funds can be used to pay for transit or Metro parking, and they will also be used if you exceed your monthly SmartBenefits® allotment

You can also reallocate transit benefits for eligible van pools, MetroAccess, MTA Commuter Bus, VRE, MARC and select long distance bus systems through the SmartBenefits® Passenger Allocation System. READY TO RIDE WITH US?

Preparing to access your SmartBenefits® is easy.

1. Your employer assigns the monthly benefit amount and informs you of the start date of your benefit.
2. Use your SmarTrip® card at least twice in the two weeks prior to your first benefit month. This prepares your card to access the account. Important: If you replace your SmarTrip® card or if you or your employer make any changes to your benefits, you will need to repeat this step. Please allow a few days for your benefits to load.
