Appeal from the Office of Personnel Management in
No. 8028724.

ON MOTION

---

Before DYK, PROST, and CHEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

O R D E R

Lacey Alexander filed what the court understood as an attempted appeal from a letter by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) responding to her inquiry regarding eligibility of retirement benefits and directing her to complete an application for a refund of retirement deductions. In response to this court's show cause order, OPM urges dismissal of this appeal. Ms. Alexander urges the court to “fix what OPM has done.” ECF No. 15 at 1.

Although this court has jurisdiction to review final decisions from the Merit Systems Protection Board regarding certain OPM benefit decisions, see 28 U.S.C. § 1295(a)(9); 5 U.S.C. § 7703(b)(1), (d), Ms. Alexander’s appeal seeks direct review of non-final OPM actions regarding her benefits claim. Any appeal from a final OPM benefits decision must first be filed with the Board. Only after the Board issues a final decision may Ms. Alexander, if necessary, file a timely petition for this court’s review.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- (1) The appeal is dismissed.
- (2) All pending motions are denied as moot.
- (3) Each side shall bear its own costs.
