Appeal from the United States District Court for the Central District of California in No. 2:25-cv-01445-JFW-MAA, Judge John F. Walter.

PER CURIAM.

O R D E R

Ricardo J. Calderon Lopez brought suit against the State of California Bar Association and Jackson Lewis LLP alleging, among other things, a conspiracy related to his inclusion on the Judicial Council of California's Vexatious Litigant List. Dkt. No. 1 at 1–3. The United States District Court for the Central District of California dismissed the case for lack of subject matter jurisdiction and later denied his post-judgment motion. Mr. Calderon Lopez then filed a notice of appeal directed to this court.

As we have previously explained to Mr. Calderon Lopez,¹ this court's jurisdiction to review district court decisions is limited to cases involving the patent laws, see 28 U.S.C. § 1295(a)(1); civil actions on review to the district court from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, see id. § 1295(a)(4)(C); and cases involving certain damages claims against the United States "not exceeding $10,000 in amount," id. § 1346(a)(2), see id. § 1295(a)(2). This case plainly does not fall within that jurisdiction. We therefore transfer to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit under 28 U.S.C. § 1631.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

The appeal and all its filings are transferred to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1631.
